SOLDIER STABBED.—Yesterday morning Sergeant Thurman, of company E, Twenty-eighth Kentucky regiment, was at Camp Boyle, was stabbed in the left side with a knife, in the hands of Robert Barr. It appears that a dispute arose in regard to their "rations," which grew to a difficulty, during which young Thurman was stabbed in two or three places in the left side by Barr. Another soldier, named Shurly, drew a knife and cut at Thurman, but did not do any injury. We learn that Thurman is a very inoffensive and moral young man, and it is thought that his wounds may prove fatal. Officer Davis, belonging to the same regiment, arrested the parties and put them in jail. Thurman's parents reside in this city.

POLICE PROCEEDINGS.—Friday, January 9.—John O'Donnell and Thomas Young, drunk and disorderly conduct. Bail in $300 for six months.

John Johnson, presented as being a suspect ed felon. Bail in $300 for good behavior.

Dennis Creary, disorderly conduct. Bail in $300 for good behavior for one year.

Pope Connely, drunk and disorderly conduct. Discharged.

Patrick Curly, drunk and abusing his family. Bail in $200 for three months.

Marion Bowland, suspected felon; held to bail in $300 for six months.

Ward THIEF CAUGHT.—Yesterday afternoon a man named John Smith sold a horse to Dr. Nevill, on Market street, for about one-third his real value, which created a suspicion that the horse was stolen. Officer Gallagher, hearing of it, arrested the man and put him in jail. While there he confessed that he had stolen the horse from a widow lady, living five miles this side of Munfordville, and gave himself another name. He belonged to an Indiana regiment, and it is supposed he was deserting the army. Officer Gallagher is one of the most efficient officers belonging to the corps of police. He is here, there, and everywhere.

The Journal made a very unnecessary allusion to our having preceded it in the publication of the Governor's Message. The unfortunate circumstance was explained in our morning paper, which entirely acquits Col. Hodges of any censure. Under the circumstances, it would perhaps have been more courteous to all parties to wait the explanation.

Our subscribers rather compliment our newspaper on "carrying out" the message as fast as delivered.

His Excellency Governor Robinson has appointed Drs. Price and Walker and Mr. Quist to visit Vicksburg, to minister to the wants of the members of the Twenty-second Kentucky infantry, who were engaged under Gen. Sherman in the late battles in that vicinity.

We call attention to the advertisement in another column, of officers in a cavalry regiment, for servants. They are not to be taken out of the State. Application to be made at C. T. Dearling's book store, No. 32 Third street, between Market and Jefferson.

Among our exchanges yesterday we noticed a neat and spicy sheet published in Memphis. Turning it over, we found it to be the Enquirer. Our friend, B. F. C. Brooks, is the editor and proprietor. Welcome, Enquirer.

Our friend, Mr. W. H. Wright, the popular messenger of the Adams Express Company, furnished us yesterday with Cincinnati papers in advance of the mails. He is very attentive to us, and he is always right.

MORE PRISONERS.—The train from Lexington brought down forty-eight rebel prisoners last evening. They were accommodated with "quarters" (which they have doubtless not had for some time), in the military prison.

We learn that Bishop Spalding will lecture at the Masonic Temple, on Monday evening. Subject—"Heroes and Heroines of Christianity."

WANTED IMMEDIATELY.—A stout, capable negro man, of sober habits, to work at the Democrat office. Apply at the counting-room.

We are under many obligations to our young and accomplished friend Alf Hewitt, Esq., for many favors to this office.

We received late New Orleans files yesterday.

We were shown the practical workings yesterday of Scarfet's Patent Bier. It is designed for lowering coffins, and it certainly is admirably adapted to the purpose. The coffin is placed upon the cords, and through the means of rollers it quietly lowered without any noise or jarring. Unwinding the cords, the coffin, with perfect regularity and accuracy, gently reaches the bottom, and by still unwinding, the supports are quietly removed and drawn from under the coffin. It should be found in every cemetery. The gentle manner in which the coffin is thus deposited in its last resting, is grateful to the feelings of those whose sad offices have called them around the grave. Dr. D. H. Cadwalader is the agent for the sale of the patent right in Kentucky and other southern States. Undertakers and cemetery keepers should examine this great improvement and useful invention to facilitate the ceremonies of burial.

PARSON BROWNLOW'S LECTURE.—The lecture of this gentleman, for the benefit of the Sanitary Commission, drew together a large audience at Masonic Temple, last night. The proceeds of the lecture are a substantial benefit to the laudable charity they are intended to promote.

The Parson's lecture, like himself, was rather peculiar, and told in his own plain way. His narratives of the trials and sufferings of the loyal people of East Tennessee could not fail to enlist the active sympathies of even the most reckless in the hall. His own sufferings, and the martyrdom of many who were put to death—their sole offense being loyalty to the old flag—were enough to stir every human heart.

But we shall not attempt to follow the lecturer in his narration—suffice it to say he was listened to earnestly to the close of his remarks, and the object of the lecture greatly promoted thereby.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Conway had a spleen, did benefit last night at the theater. The house was crowded, and "Peep O'Day" gave general satisfaction to all present. They appear this evening for the last time in this city.

"Peep O'Day" will be produced, and to those who have never seen it, we advise them to go, and they will never regret having witnessed the performances of Mr. and Mrs. Conway, in the beautiful Irish drama, "Peep O'Day." Give them a "bumper at parting." Miss Sally St. Clair has been engaged, and will shortly make her appearance. She is a great favorite in the theater-going public in this city.

New Music.—We are indebted to McCarrell, of Jefferson street, for copies of two delightful new songs, by that popular songwriter, J. R. Thomas, author of "Cottage by the Sea," and other gems. McCarrell says he has a large supply, but it will not last long, as these songs are immensely popular.

We understand that deserters and others who are permitted, from the rebel army, are daily taking the oath of allegiance and returning to their homes. We understand that number took the oath yesterday, and bid farewell forever to military prison life, and return to their once peaceful and happy homes.

The funeral of Lieut. Isaac Everett took place yesterday afternoon. His remains were followed to Cave Hill Cemetery by a very large concourse of friends and acquaintances, who lament his untimely loss.

OUR handsome friend, W. Scott Glorie, Esq., favored us last evening with Nashville papers of the 8th. Thanks, Scott.

Mr. Chas. A. Smith, in the County Clerk's office, will please except our thanks for favors.

TAX PAYERS ARE REFERRED TO THE COLLECTOR'S NOTICE IN TODAY'S PAPER.

RAIN.—About 11 o'clock last night a heavy and apparently steady rain began to fall.

JOHN MORGAN'S DOINGS AND EXIT.—We have learned some particulars of Morgan's doings in this State. From Campbellsville he struck for Louisville, arriving there New Year's day. He crossed the Cumberland and camped on the Livingston road, seven miles beyond Columbia. Between Campbellsville and that point he stole about a thousand horses, indiscriminately from Sees and loyalties, mostly from the former. He robbed the stores of Columbia of about $6,000 worth of goods, and stole $8,000 worth of leather from one man in Campbellsville.

Morgan and Champ Ferguson parted at Columbia, the former authorizing Ferguson to do as he pleased in his old neighborhood. He used this permission to steal right and left, and murder three citizens, if not more. Their names were Hindlestone and two brothers Thayer. Ferguson was pursued by a party of Jacob's Ninth Kentucky Cavalry out the CINCINNATI road.

While in Columbia an order was written by Tim Cravens (Sees) for Morgan to release a man named Murrel. The order not being obeyed, Cravens was seized by the military authority and held as a hostage, which resulted in the prompt release of Murrel.

An incident occurred at Columbus worth mentioning. Three lads, the oldest twelve years of age, came into our lines, claiming to be from Indians, to which State they wished to return. The charitable soldiers clothed and fed them, and furnished them with lodgings. In the night they stole some pistols and escaped, firing at the pickets as they went. The next day they were arrested and examined singly. They all told the same story, that a cowardly wretch named Traylor had threatened their lives unless they undertook the exploit. Traylor was arrested and is now in the hands of the authorities. The children were released.

Colonel Wolford's cavalry pursued Morgan with five miles of Columbia, but was not in sufficient force to do more than harass his rear. Col. Morrison was driven from his home about three o'clock Sunday morning, but succeeded in reaching Columbia, where he remained until Tuesday, when he started to join his regiment.
